LATER FROM MEXICO. Second Edition

NEW YORK, June 1. - The steamer Shelldrake Havana on the 16th of May, arrived this Rernoon.
It was reported at Havana that the yellow wer had broken out among the French in Mexico.

An extra of the Havana Disric of the 28th, received by the Shelidrake, reports the arrival stem, from Vera Ccus, with important distances from Gen. Forey, amounting the occupation of Fuella by the forces under his command. The prisoners include Ortegs and 3 other generals, and 900 minor officers and 7,000 men.

17,000 men.

It appears that on the 10th Forey opened with heavy artillery on Fort Tohlmempuscan, and on the next day a breach was effected. The French troops then made an assault, and overcoming a desperate resistance entered the plaza when betters are when Oriega surrendered unconditionally.
On the 20th one division of the French army started for the City of Mexico.

NEW YORK, June I.—Port Royal advices by the Arago state that our forces on Folly Island were attacked on the 26th of May by the rebels, who were repulsed. Gen. Huster has issued an order drafting all able-bodied mon not in the employ of the Gov-eroment found in his department after the 14th of June.

of June.

It is stated that an expedition is about being sent into the interior of Florida.

A British blockade runner, trying to get out of Charleston, was discovered on the night of the 30th, and aunic before she could gain the bar on her return, by the Powhatan and flagship. The efficers and crew, it is supposed, perished. She was a large steamship.

On the 25d, another steamer was discovered, was fired into, and recrossed the bar under a heavy fire, and went in the main channel off Morris Island.
